Summer Reading 2022

Summer Reading is back at the Pittsburg Public Library! We're offering Oceans of Possibilities for kids & teens, and CAMP READ-A-LOT for adults.

Sign up for a reading program and read books (and more) to win prizes! Books can be counted for a reading program through the end of July.

Join us for a fun summer of activities and programs. Many programs will be held at the Library...but we're casting our line around town, as well. Look for programs at Lincoln Park, Root Coffeehouse, & Pittsburg Memorial Auditorium.

All Library programs are free to our community. Some programs require pre-registration (keep reading for all the details). As always call, click, or stop by the Library for more information.

We switch things up in July so stay tuned to our website, pick up the Pittsburg Public Library Calendar of Events, and check out our socials.

Thank you to the Friends of the Library for sponsoring
the Summer Reading Programs!

June's title is The Music of Bees by Eileen Garvin. New readers are always welcome!

Summer Story Time

Let's Celebrate an Ocean of Possibilities! Summer Story Time is open to children and families. No sign-up is required. June Story Time will be held on Monday evenings at the Library, and on Tuesdays and Wednesdays in Lincoln Park. Look for the PPL Bookmobile. If it's raining...head to the Library instead.
